Sir,

I most respectfully beg to submit the following few lines for your kind consideration.

I am the wife of one Narashimaiah, who was working as peon in the Superintendent of Octroi City Municipality, Bangalore City, and I am residing in Door No.45, Jolly Masid Road, Ranasinghpet, Bangalore City.

During the recent communal disturbances my husband fell a pray/(stabbed) on Wednesday the 2nd April 1947 while he was bound towards his work-spot at 10 A.M. i.e. to parcel office at Bangalore City Railway Station.

I have now become a widow with a minor son aged 16 years and he will be appearing for S.S.L.C. in 1947-48. In this connection I also bring to your kind notice that I have no body to fall back upon for my living.

Under the above circumstances I most respectfully request you to protect me by granting me a monthly allowance until such time that my boy comes of age. I further request the Benign Govt. to provide my boy with necessary educational facilities to complete his educational career.

I hope and pray that my request will be favourably considered.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
